

Helping Children Hold Space for Grief and Loss

An evening of supporting students experiencing grief and loss through connection and arts-based activities.

Supporting grieving children can be very challenging, especially as we try to navigate the loss ourselves.

We would like to offer some support.

Any LEH or Ronald Harvey students who would like to hold space for their grief and loss are invited to join Kelsey Beier, Cindy Jeffery, Angie Ahn and Kristie Brahim for an evening of connection and exploration.
